SCRCHA's Jimmy Flores, Sr. event attracts top talent

BY SUE CARTER /
FOR THE HORSETRADER

TEMECULA – The Southern California Reined Cow Horse

Association hosted its annual Jimmy Flores, Sr. Memorial Horse Show on May 11-14 at Green Acres Ranch. Great weather treated the riders, horses and cattle with cool temperatures.

There was some fun to be had with the added team branding class on Saturday afternoon. Exhibitors and spectators alike enjoyed watching the teams have success -- and calamity! The SCRCHA will have more opportunities for exhibitors to practice their roping skills with a steer stopping class at its next show July 7-9. The July Show is also an opportunity for the youth riders to try their hand at cow horse, as youth ride free at the Grant Berg Memorial show at Green Acres Ranch.

At the Jimmy Flores, Sr. Memorial Horse Show, herd work was started with Roy Rich taking first aboard Very Smart Luck for Rocking J Ranch and also second on DragnReys, owned by Paul Yoder.

Open Cutting started off Friday's classes with Mark Gaiser winning on his Spark N Boom. CD Shining Pepto, ridden by Deeanna Penna, won the Non Pro Cutting. In Non Pro herd work, Tisa Sweet Kiss, ridden by Cynthia Capetillo, took first ahead of reserve finisher Mister Olena Chic, ridden by Ruth Noring.

In Ranch Horse competition, Rosie Cowley of Temecula took Alpha El Padrino to the Junior Horse Division championship for owner Dylan Pond. In the Senior Horse Division, Victoria Faith Werner captured first place on Step Out N Shine, owned by Mary Kay Manion.

The Box Drive class was won by Call Me WR, ridden and owned by Erica Ann Katz in Show No. 2, and by Linda Kiernan aboard FTR Smart Smoke in show No. 1.

In the Open Bridle classes, RR Justa Merada won for owner Candy Flock with Roy
