SCRCHA wraps up its 2024 season

BY SUE CARTER / FOR THE HORSETRADER

TEMECULA – The September Classic was the last show of 2024 for Southern California Reined Cow Horse Association. Soaring temperatures did not deter the hardy competitors from vying for the year-end points and coveted Doug Williamson Memorial Buckle, sponsored by Molly's Custom Silver. The start time was moved up by an hour in an effort to save the horses and competitors from the heat.

Tina Lattanzio aboard her own Smooth Moves won both the Open and Non Pro Cutting, with Craig Cowley aboard Peppys Autumn Cat coming in second in Open Cutting.

Greer Hartman, riding Kit Kat Sugar Shack, and Roy Rich, riding Half Past Boon, tied for the first slot in Open Herd Work. Greer also tied for first in the Non Pro Herd work with Patti Hartman riding Call Me WR. The Junior Ranch Riding was won by Dustin Turk on RR Bailout Cat and Jenni Dawson riding Huckleberry Cat to the win in Senior Ranch Riding. Jenni took first in the AQHA Ranch Riding with Huckleberry Cat also. Marie De Yesso won the Amateur Ranch Riding and AQHA Amateur as well.

The big winners for the weekend included Dustin Turk, riding Wright On Holly Time, for the High Composite score to win the Doug Williamson Memorial Buckle. Other big winners were the Spectacular Champions: Roy Dustin Turk rode Wright On Holly Time to the High Composite score for the Doug Williamson Memorial Buckle.
